New Summer Concert Series set for Downtown Crown

Blues, Funk, top 40 and Jaz on tap

Gaithersburg, Maryland (June 11, 2015) — Clear those cobwebs off your folding chairs and enjoy the new concert series that launches this week in Downtown Crown's central park. The series is just in time for you to relish in the warm summer nights and listen to some tunes.

On Thursdays in June and July, the sound of music will fill the grassy park just behind Ted's Bulletin at the corner of Ellington Boulevard and Copley Place from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

The Top 40's pop group, Julia Fanning Band, will provide this week's entertainment. As well as, games for all ages including, corn hole, bocce ball and life-size chess. The music and entertainment are for the whole family in Downtown Crown, a new hotspot in Montgomery County.

Multiple dining choices offer different choices for different tastes, including La Madeline, &pizza, Coastal Flats, Paladar Latin Kitchen, Asia Nine, Chop't, Smashburger and many more. For those with a taste for sweets, Yogiberry is just around the corner from the park.

Next up in the concert series is the funky, blues group, Kelly Bell Band on June 18 and the interactive, jazz group Special Occasions on June 25. This series will run every Thursday night until July 23. For more information and to see a full schedule of performers visit <http://smarturbanliving.com/downtown-crown/>

About Downtown Crown

Downtown Crown, located in Gaithersburg, Maryland is an elegant mixed-use center featuring both a neighborhood component including Harris Teeter and LA Fitness, and a lifestyle center component anchored by a variety of unique-to-market retailers and high-end restaurants including Coastal Flats, Old Town Pour House and Ruth's Chris Steakhouse.
